8. Terms and Conditions

Organisations wishing to operate Training Centres for CPC Training must satisfy the following RSA conditions

- [1] Training Centres must abide by the Terms and Conditions as stated in the Training Centre Guidelines for RSA Approval (provided separately).
- [2] If a Training Centre fails to comply with these Terms and Conditions, the RSA may remove or suspend the approval status of the Training Centre with immediate effect.
- [3] Only Training Centres that are approved by the RSA can deliver CPC Training in the Republic of Ireland. RSA approval will last for a period of five years, subject to these Terms and Conditions.
- [4] Only training modules approved by the RSA should be delivered for CPC Training. Failure to comply with this could lead to removal from the list of approved centres.
- [5] Only training materials that have been approved by the RSA, and provided to drivers at a high-standard, should be delivered as CPC Training. Failure to comply with this could lead to removal from the list of approved centres.
- [6] Only Training Centres approved for CPC Training are entitled to use the RSA logo.
- [7] Training providers organisation must provide the details of a named person who is responsible for this application. Only a person authorised to commit the organisation to the Terms and Conditions of this agreement should sign this application.
- [8] The Principal of the establishment seeking approval must sign this document signifying their acceptance of these Terms and Conditions on behalf of the Training Centre. Applications for approval must be made in writing using this application form.
- [9] Training provider organisations must provide a single named contact whom the RSA can contact in relation to this application.
- [10] The RSA reserves the right to revise these Terms and Conditions at any time with a minimum of three months notice given.
- [11] Training provider organisations must have a specified business address, where training records are kept securely and for a period of at least six years, and a contact point, which will be made available to anyone looking for a provider via the RSA's website or with a legitimate complaint. P.O. Boxes are not acceptable for use in the list of approved centres, but can be used as a trading address on letters etc.
- [12] Where Training provider organisations operate at more than one location, they must ensure that systems are in place to ensure that a consistent high standard is delivered across all locations, for maintaining standards across all approved Training Centres, and for updating the central driver database. If the RSA were to find any irregularities at any of your approved Training Centres, the RSA could remove or suspend the approval status of the Training Centre.
- [13] Training Centres must issue all drivers, on completion of a course, a receipt which details the amount of CPC Training received during the course. Any fraudulent issue of these receipts could result in the removal of approval status of the Training Centre with immediate effect.
- [14] Training Centres must transfer information to the database on modules delivered within five working days of the date of the course.
- [15] If a Training Centre fails in its attempt to become approved, it may re-apply as soon as the reasons for the failure have been rectified.
- [16] Training Centres must ensure that all requirements for premises are met before any courses are delivered. Failure to comply with this could lead to removal from the list of approved centres.
- [17] Training Centres must carry out identity checks to verify the identity of each participant on a course. Failure to comply with this could lead to removal from the list of approved centres.
- [18] Training Centres must provide mechanisms for the delivery of CPC Training Modules to be monitored internally or through driver evaluations.
- [19] Training Centres must show how they comply with legislation related to the following:
 - 19.1 Health and Safety
 - 19.2 Data Protection
 - 19.3 Equal Opportunity
 - 19.4 Environment
 - 19.5 Vetting of Training staff
- [20] Training Centres must show how they evaluate their needs in relation to staff development, and programme development, delivery and review.
- [21] The RSA or a representative officer reserves the right to visit an approved Training Centre at any reasonable time without prior notice. Failure to comply with this could lead to removal from the list of approved centres.
- [22] As part of any audit visit, the RSA or a representative officer shall be entitled to participate in any approved training course.
- [23] Training Centres must hold an up-to-date list of all Trainers engaged in training in that centre, supported by documentary evidence of their appropriateness to deliver CPC Training. The modules, at each centre, that the Trainer can deliver must be specified.
- [24] Training Centres must continuously hold the appropriate insurance cover and tax clearance certificate for their business.
