

John Mulvihill

John was elected a member of Dail Eireann from 1992 to 1997. During this term he served as an Irish Government representative on the council of Europe, the British and Irish inter-parliamentary body and the Legislation and Security Committee of Dail Eireann. John also has extensive experience serving as an overseas election observer on a number of occasions.

John served over 20 years as a member of Cork County Council and was elected Chairman/Mayor on 2 separate occasions."